

Greater Miami Valley EMS Council would like to recognize another important group this month that keeps us all safe. Celebrating all of the hospitals with whom we interact daily. Our organization relies on collaboration with our hospital partners. The continuum of care deserves our recognition as we serve the sick and injured together.