

Apply Now!

DAYTON MMRS INTERN

Paid Internship with the Metropolitan Medical Response System (MMRS) program at the Dayton Fire Department

Qualifications:

- ✓ Full-time undergraduate or graduate student (all majors can apply)
- ✓ Expected to work 15-20 hr/week during school year and 35-40 hr/week during summer

Expectations:

- ✓ Prepare and revise plans and reports
- ✓ Develop policies and procedures
- ✓ Draft guidance material for response personnel
- ✓ Support the MMRS websites
- ✓ Assist with regional planning activities for mass casualty incident response

Benefits:

- ✓ Paid
- ✓ Flexible hours
- ✓ Great experience
- ✓ Great people
- ✓ College credit

Internship starts May 2026 and will conclude May 2027

For more information and to apply, go to <https://www.soche.org/apply/> or scan the QR code above. The Dayton MMRS internship can be found by selecting the “Dayton Fire Department MMRS Internship” position.

Questions can be directed to:

Senior Paramedic David Gerstner at david.gerstner@daytonohio.gov (MMRS Coordinator) or Kay DeVore at kay.devore@daytonohio.gov (current MMRS Intern)